PROGRESSIVES CARRY MOTION THROUGH CONVENTION ABROGATING UNIT RULE

CLARK WINS IN WAGOANS LEAVE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE FOR ONE-DAY TRADE TRIP

TEN VOTES FROM SOUTH DAKOTA TAKEN FROM WILSON AND GIVEN TO SPEAKER.

Champ Men From District of Columbia Seated Instead of Uninstructed.

Baltimore, June 26.—The credentials committee late this afternoon overturned the action of the national committee and gave the ten seats from South Dakota to Clark delegates in the first actual test of strength between the Wilson and anti-Wilson forces. The action of the national committee in seating the uninstructed district of Columbia delegates over the Clark delegates was also overruled.

By a vote of 23 to 23 the committee unseated the ten Wilson delegates, who had received the highest vote in the state primaries June 4, and gave the seats to the Clark delegation, headed by Andrew E. Lee. This was one of two delegations that ran under the Clark banner, their combined vote exceeding that of the Wilson ticket.

The South Dakota case presented three contesting tickets, one headed, "Wilson-Bryan Progressive Democracy," another "Wilson-Clark-Bryan Democracy" and a third, "Clark for President."

The Clark forces claimed the third ticket had been filed to divide their vote, but this was denied. The delegates are for Clark, and it was claimed that while they received about 300 less votes than the Wilson ticket, the total vote cast for both Clark tickets exceeded that cast for the single Wilson ticket. The Clark delegates who were seated held certificates issued under the law by the democratic state chairman, while the Wilson delegates later had been awarded certificates by the state canvassing board.

Now Vote Stood.

The division in the committee was:

Clark delegates—Sullivan, Arkansas; Lee, Arizona; South, Arkansas; Crawford, California; Gall, Colorado; Chase, Florida; Hutchens, Georgia; Heitfeld, Idaho; Campbell, Illinois; Bell, Indiana; Murphy, Iowa; Hinds, Kansas; Young, Kentucky; Field, Maryland; Donohue, Massachusetts; Kinnane, Michigan; Talley, Mississippi; Shannon, Missouri; Coffey, Montana; Miller, Nebraska; Wills, New Hampshire; Bickley, New Mexico; Ross, Ohio; Call, Oklahoma; Barry, Rhode Island; Eiss, Washington; McCorkle, West Virginia; Erwin, Alaska. Total, 23.

Against Clark delegates—Thomas, Connecticut; Holick, Delaware; Blanchard, Louisiana; Harvey, Maine; Knox, Minnesota; Wedin, New Jersey; Bridges, New York; Hammer, North Carolina; Kelly, North Dakota; Moses, Oregon; McCormick, Pennsylvania; Glenn, South Carolina; Adler, Tennessee; Crane, Texas; Whitmore, Utah; Mayo, Vermont; Story, Virginia; Martin, Wisconsin; Hasekamp, Wyoming; Harvey, District of Columbia; Effinger, Hawaii; Melina, Porto Rico; Manley, Philippines. Total, 23.

The six Alaska delegates seated by the national committee on the temporary roll were seated by the credentials committee by an unanimous vote.

Contests from Missouri, Texas, Rhode Island and the Philippines were not presented.

Wine District of Columbia. In the three-cornered district of Columbia contest the uninstructed delegates, headed by National Committeeman Newman, which had been recognized by the national committee, were unseated, and the "Costello delegation," instructed for Clark, was inducted.

Two minority reports were decided upon in the Illinois contest, where the Roger C. Sullivan member, reserved the right to present a minority report in favor of the Harrison-Hearst faction.

In the South Dakota contest P. H. Martin of Wisconsin asked all those voting for the losing Wilson delegates to join him in a report that would carry the fight to the floor of the convention. The vote was 23 to 23.

YOUNG MEN'S BUSINESS LEAGUE EXCURSION TO COMANCHE PROMISES SUCCESS.

Business Interests Generally Represented—All Towns to Welcome Trade Boosters.

Ready for a fight or a frolic, or both, the Wacoans and Waco's business interests will score another success today, a large delegation leaving this morning on a special train over the Cotton Belt for Comanche on the second of the Young Men's Business League one-day trade trips. The train leaves from the union station this morning at 7:15 and it will be loaded with an enthusiastic and representative crowd of Waco boosters.

Stops will be made at Rich, South Bosque, McGregor, Oglesby, L. Junction, Mount, Gateville, Levita, Ireland and Hamilton, where dinner will be served, Lamkin, Gustine and Comanche, which will be reached at 3:25 o'clock in the afternoon. Supper will be eaten at the latter place, after which the return trip will be started. The train is due to arrive back in Waco at 11:30 o'clock tonight.

All details for the trip were concluded yesterday and last night shortly after 11 o'clock, when the siren whistle announced all was in readiness. The whistle and other will blow again this morning, and Wacoans will probably be awakened by the Y. M. B. L. signal. Secretary M. Hagedorn and Frank J. Trau have had the work in charge, and they last night predicted a successful and enjoyable day. The Baylor band will accompany the train and the M. B. L. Cream company will supply cream free all day.

Telegrams have been received from commercial clubs in a number of towns which will be visited today, stating that all is in readiness for a reception of the guests. Dinner will be eaten in Hamilton, where the citizens have prepared a big spread, according to a message received yesterday. The special train will be appropriately decorated this morning with streamers and considerable advertising literature will also be on board.

Unless Houses Act U. S. Will Violate Law by Existing

Washington, June 26.—President Taft will send a message to congress tomorrow pointing out the anomalous situation whereby the machinery of the federal government must continue in operation in direct violation of law, making officials liable to fine and imprisonment unless steps are immediately taken to provide for the next fiscal year beginning July 1.

It is unlawful for any official to create a deficiency or to accept the services of any one gratuitous. Unless congress acts, it is pointed out in administration circles, one of these laws must be violated to some extent because government business cannot come to a standstill.

If appropriations are not made the civil employees of the navy yards and in the department here will be given furloughs Monday.

Boy Rebuked For Trading Watch For Chicken, Takes Life

Washington, June 26.—Because a 3-year-old boy Hurdle received a parental rebuke last Saturday for exchanging a watch for a chicken to which he had taken a fancy, the boy hanged himself from a tree near his home. His disappearance caused a search for him which resulted today in the discovery of his body.

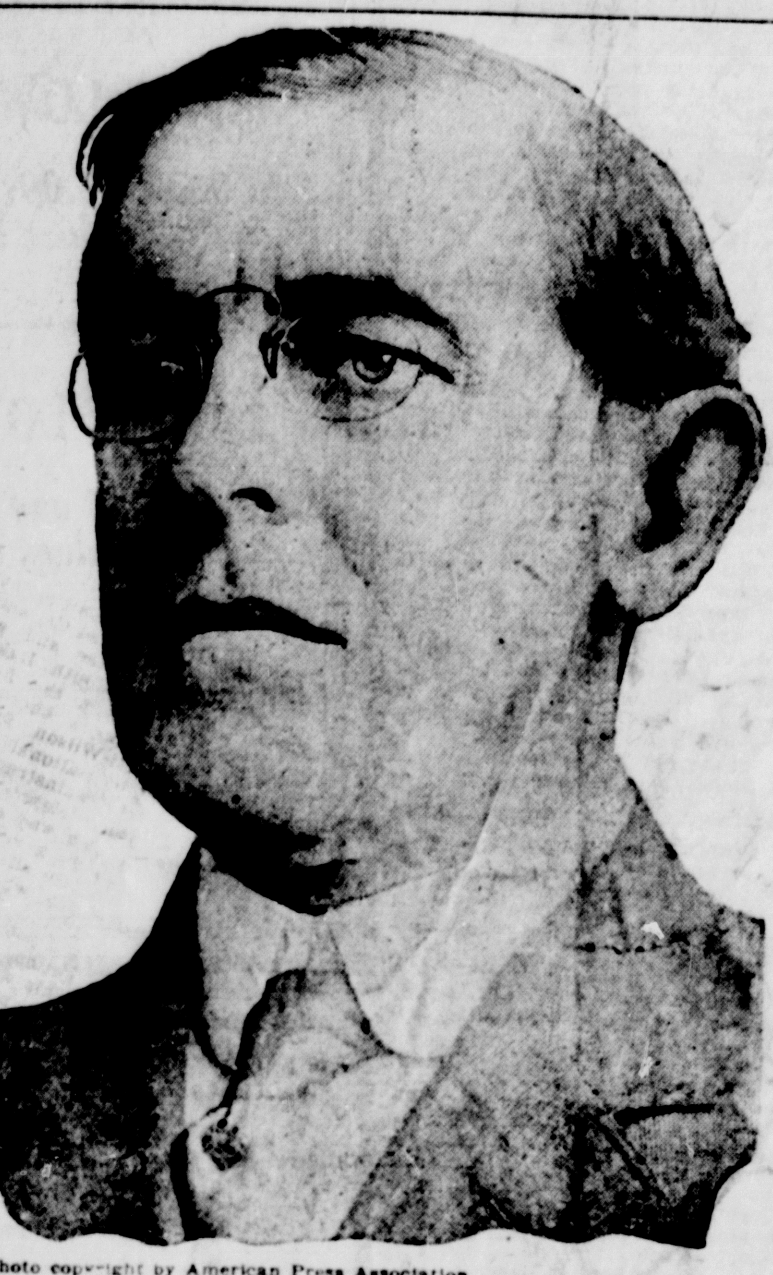

SAN ANGELO AND CARLSBAD TO CELEBRATE ON JULY 4

San Angelo, Texas, June 26.—A celebration at Carlsbad July 4 in honor of the location and completion of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium No. 1, at Carlsbad, is being arranged by the citizens of Carlsbad and San Angelo. Carlsbad is located 16 miles northwest of San Angelo in Tom Green county. Hon. T. H. McGregor of Austin and others will speak at celebration. Invitations to the event, which will include a barbecue in the day and a ball at night have been sent over the state by J. Willis Johnson, a millionaire banker, and T. C. Wynn of San Angelo, and T. J. Clegg of Carlsbad.

DALLAS-WAXAHACHIE INTERURBAN PROGRESSING

Waxahachie, Tex., June 26.—Practically all the track of the Dallas-Waxahachie interurban line has been laid to the city limits of Dallas. The work now in progress is the placing of poles and ballasting the track. The line is expected to be open for service September 1.

DRIVER KILLED AS HIS TRAIN JUMPS TRACK

DIXIE FLYER, AT HIGH SPEED, LEAVES RAILS AT MARTIN, ILLINOIS.

Nine Cars, With Several Hundred Passengers, Follow Engine; Score Injured.

Chicago, June 27.—Engineer Kendrick is reported to have been killed and a score of persons are believed to have been injured by the wrecking of the Dixie Flyer on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad tonight near Martin, Ill., 68 miles south of Chicago.

The train which consisted of nine cars, three of which were sleepers, were known as No. 95 and left Chicago at 9:16 this evening for Jacksonville, Fla., by way of Evansville, Ind. There were several hundred passengers on the train.

The first report of the wreck received in Chicago was that the locomotive and the entire train left the track while running at a high rate of speed.

PAWN BROKERS "STUNG" BY GOTHAM POLICE

Advanced Big Bums To "Coppers" On Uniforms Now In the Discard.

New York, June 26.—The pawnbroker does not always get the best of it. An investigation committee here has just found out that 200 pawnbrokers in New York City have on hand several thousand summer uniforms on which they allowed policemen from $10 to $20 apiece.

The pawnbrokers say they have been accustomed to take up these police uniforms in the fall, saving the police the bother of storing them away in moth balls. They generally allowed the bluecoats liberal sums in the belief that the pawn tickets would be promptly redeemed in the spring. Now it develops that a new type of uniform has been adopted and none of the policemen are going back for their old suits. The result is that pawnbrokers are selling out at $4 apiece uniforms on which they allowed from three to five times that amount.

AGED BRIDGEGRASS HANGS SELF

Chicago, June 25.—The body of Frederick Schrider, 2026 Sheffield avenue, who disappeared last Saturday, yesterday was found hanging to a limb of a tree in Rudolph's woods, at Bryn Mawr and Lincoln avenues. Schrider, who was 63 years old, married a woman nearly twenty years his junior about three months ago. Recently he suffered from ill health.

GLUB WOMEN PLAN TO REFORM PRESS

SPEAKER AT SAN FRANCISCO MEETING PLAYS SUNDAY, COMIC SUPPLEMENT.

San Francisco, June 26.—Mrs. Philip North Moore of St. Louis, retiring president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, now in session here for its eleventh biennial convention, urged that women address themselves particularly to international and industrial peace, regulation of the press and the drama, education, inspection of factories and a closer watch on national legislation affecting social and civic life.

The Sunday comic supplement came in for sharp criticism, as actually "vicious."

"Cannot we have a supplement," asked Mrs. Moore, "that is actually artistic and truly humorous?"

Mrs. M. W. Barry of Sherman, Texas, said:

"From the mass of reports and private correspondence the committee on sex hygiene submits the following facts:

"That it is generally conceded by educators, physicians and social workers that there is urgent need for personal and sex hygiene instructions in our schools.

"That it should include more than mere physical facts.

"That it is dangerous to introduce into elementary and secondary schools until it is required in normal school and teachers are carefully selected and prepared for the work.

"That such instruction is essential to eradicate the social evil and controlling diseases.

HOPE TO DETERMINE RELATION TO APE

Experiments Will Be Made To Solve Race Priority Question.

Berlin, June 26.—An attempt is to be made at the Imperial Research laboratory at Munich to determine by blood precipitin experiments, which of the living races of men bears the closest blood relationship to the ape.

Should the experiment succeed it will settle many perplexing problems of science and may revolutionize the theories of evolutionists as well as theologians.

As the case now stands there is general agreement among scientists that man and the ape are descended from a common ancestor, but as to whether the black, the white, the red or the yellow man, the pigmy, the giant or the medium sized man was the original human type there are strong differences of opinion. One body of theorists holds that the negro is a degenerated white type, while another insists that the white man is evolved from an ancient black type.

To apply the blood precipitin tests to the settlement of this problem it will be necessary only to advance a few steps further on experiments made by Prof. Nuttall of the University of Cambridge, England.

"I'm Playing a Lone Hand and Will Fight to the End" Says T.R.

Oyster Bay, June 26.—The issue upon which Colonel Roosevelt is to make his campaign for the presidency was indicated by him today.

He purposes to base his appeal upon the assertion that what he has termed the "big sinister influence," have determined to eliminate him from public life because he is the one man whom they really fear.

To accomplish this purpose he believes they are willing to take up any man whom they think can win the presidency over him. Having defeated him at the Chicago convention, he says, they hope to control the democratic convention to this same end.

"They know me and I know them," he said. "It is anything to beat me I am fighting a lone hand and I am going to fight it to the end."

The former president made this remark after a long conference with Wm. A. Prendergast, controller of New York City, who Prendergast came to Oyster Bay to induce Colonel Roosevelt to say definitely that under no circumstances would he withdraw from the fight.

Civil Case With Famous Name Is at Last Settled

The National Grand lodge of the United Brotherhood of Friendship, and the Sisters of the Mystical Ten of North America, South America, Europe, Asia and Africa, with headquarters in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, U. S. A., versus W. F. Blodgett.

The hand of Deputy District Clerk Rucker which held the pen that jotted down the above civil cause in the records of the Nineteenth district court yesterday fell limp to his side. A faint smile spread over the clerk's face as he noted that the famous case, and the task of writing the exaggerated title on the records of the court was almost at an end. The plaintiff was given a judgment in the sum of $1464.85 as prayed for in the original petition. The suit was the outcome of an alleged disagreement among the leaders of the lodge. The defendant resides in Marshall, Texas.

BRANDT MUST GO BACK TO HIS CELL IN PRISON

Eighteen Ohio District Delegates Torn From Harmon by Eastern Rival; Other Breaks Are Rumored.

VOTE FOLLOWS 33-MINUTE WILSON DEMONSTRATION

Chicago Scenes Reenacted When Crowd Raids Press Stand After One of Number Is Thrown Out.

By The Associated Press.

Baltimore, June 26.—The progressives in the democratic national convention claimed a notable victory when they carried a motion abrogating the rule by which some state delegations were bound to cast their votes as a unit.

The fight for and against the unit rule was waged particularly about Ohio, where eighteen district delegates had been instructed by primaries to vote for Woodrow Wilson, but where the state convention, controlled by the Harmon forces had invoked the unit rule binding all Ohio delegates to the Ohio governor.

Unit Rule Voted Down.

The convention, by 565 1-2 to 451 1-2, voted that no state delegation should be bound by unit control except in such cases where a state law was mandatory on the subject.

Wilson supporters in the convention, who earlier in the evening had carried on a demonstration thirty-three minutes, regard the vote as distinctly favoring their candidate. The Wilson boom had been growing throughout the day.

Wilson gained and Harmon lost eighteen votes for the Ohio delegation as a result of the fight. It was said the abrogation of the rule might lead to breaks by other delegations, and this left the presidential nomination race in more doubt than ever.

New York's solid block of ninety votes were cast in favor of continuing the unit rule amid hisses and shouts. Missouri, the home state of Champ Clark, split 28 to 9 in favor of the report. Pennsylvania, a Wilson state, gave a big majority for abrogation.

See New York for Wilson.

There had been reports during the day of a growing sentiment in the New York delegation in favor of Governor Wilson. The delegation voted under the unit rule tonight in casting its ballot against the proposition.

The fight over the unit rule carried the night session well along toward midnight. The report from the committee on credentials then was received. As there was a minority report requiring discussion an adjournment was decided upon until noon tomorrow.

Crowd Is Slow.

A sweltering atmosphere charged with humidity greeted the delegates as the filed in for the night session just before 8 o'clock.

A misunderstanding that had threatened for an hour kept the gallery attendance down and at 8 o'clock only about half of the seats for spectators were filled. The delegates, too, were slow in arriving. National Committeeman Mack appeared on the scene shortly after 8 o'clock.

At 8:32 Chairman Parker dropped his gavel, the sergeant-at-arms cleared the aisles and secured order, while the Rev. T. O. Crouse began the prayer.

Immediately after the prayer, Representative Covington of Maryland, chairman of the committee on rules, presented the committee's report.

The report as read by Mr. Covington would place the nomination of president and vice president on the program of the convention immediately after the report of the committee on credentials and before the adoption of the platform.

This is contrary to the usual custom," said Mr. Covington, "but while the committee on rules was in session today three distinguished members of the committee on resolutions, Senator Rayner, Governor Vardaman and another distinguished member of the resolutions committee, came into our conference. They informed the rules committee that the resolutions committee by a vote of 11 to 11 had determined that the exigencies of the present democratic convention made it wise to have this report proceed to the nomination of president and vice president before the adoption of the platform. In recognition of the distinguished members of the resolutions committee the committee on rules has embodied it in the report of the rules committee. I now move the adoption of that report.

Report Adopted.

The report, much to the surprise of the convention generally, was adopted by a viva voce vote without opposition. Mr. Covington then presented the majority supplemental report of the rules committee, making the "unit rule" a rule of the convention. As reported, the rule would make a unit instruction by a state convention binding on a delegation if a majority of the dele-

NOMINATION TO COME BEFORE PLATFORM

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE BE-GINS SERIES OF HEARINGS
ON PROPOSED PLANKS.

Culberson and Georgian Have Wordy
Battle Over Workmen's Compensation Question.

By The Associated Press.

Baltimore, June 26.—Sitting in a commodious room in the armory in which the democratic convention is holding its sessions, a large part of which was occupied by stacks of rifles with glistening bayonets attached, the committee on resolutions today began the work of preparing a platform for the consideration of the convention. The committee sat during a large part of the day and with the approach of night turned over to a sub-committee of eleven the detailed work of preparing the document for the consideration for the full body.

Man Before Platform.
In addition to voting to recommend that the platform should not be presented to the convention until after the nomination of a presidential candidate the committee began a series of hearings before the presentation of pleas for platform declarations. Verbal suggestions were offered, planks were sent in and in some instances entire platforms were presented. Among the latter was a complete platform drafted from the New York delegation and another by Senator Newlands of Nevada.

Other features of the hearings included a lively tilt between Senator Culberson and Congressman W. G. Brantley of Georgia. Mr. Brantley is a member of the National Employers' Liability commission and he took sharp issue with some of the Texans' references to the workmen's compensation bill reported by that commission.

New York's platform received careful consideration. It gives first place to the tariff, declaring it to be a fundamental principle of the democratic party, that the federal government has no right or power to collect duties except for revenue. There is a demand that the collection of tariff taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the government when economics are administered.

Asks Immediate Revision.
There is a declaration for immediate revision, especially as to the necessities of life. President Taft's course in vetoing the woolen, cotton, chemical and the farmer's free list bills of the last session of congress is roundly denounced.

Rigid enforcement of the anti-trust laws and such additions as may be necessary to make the laws effective are promised.

While opposing the establishment of a central bank, the opinion is expressed that there should be legislation under democratic auspices looking to the creation of a flexible banking law which would prevent every effort to remove just dictations from controlling the banks of the country.

Declares for Income Tax.
Declaration is made for an income tax through constitutional amendment and also the election of senators by the direct vote of the people and for a single six-year term for president.

The work of the present democratic house of representatives is highly commended.

Promise is made to maintain the Monroe doctrine and to protect Americans at home and abroad. With evident reference to the treatment of American Jews in Russia, promise is made to the exercise of every effort to remove unjust discrimination on account of race or creed.

Other recommendations favor:
Extension of the parcels post.
Encouragement of the merchant marine, but without subsidy.

Federal aid in the maintenance of good roads.

Improvement of the inland waterways.

Reformation of the civil service, making merit the standard.

Workmen's compensation legislation.

Improvement of the pure food laws.

Conservation of natural resources.

Reduction of governmental expenditures.

Mr. Newland's draft favored the abolition of negro suffrage, the gradual reduction of the tariff and the appropriation of $50,000,000 annually for river improvement.

Texas and Brantley.
The encounter between Senator Culberson and Mr. Bentley took place in connection with an argument by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in the interest of a plan favorable to labor. He spoke for the principle covered by the workmen's compensation bill, when Mr. Culberson raised the question as to federal jurisdiction in compensation cases. The Texas senator and the Georgia

MR. RAWLS ADDS GOOD TESTIMONY

Prominent Waco Citizen Has Told
"Plant Juice" and Now Offers Advice.

Mr. M. C. Rawls has lived in Waco sixteen years, is one of the best known citizens of the city and is the popular manager of the electrical department of the Ambold Sporting goods people. Previously for nine years, Mr. Rawls was with the Citizens' Railroad company as electrician, resigning two years ago to accept his present line of work.

Many of Mr. Rawls' friends have known that his health was not the best and many of them now inquire as to the change for the better that has suddenly come to him. To the "Plant Juice" demonstrator at Old Corner drug store, Mr. Rawls said: "I have long suffered with constipation and without finding anything to cure me. A few days ago I started in on your Plant Juice and it is truly marvelous. It has not only entirely removed my trouble but has braced me up and made me feel wonderfully better. I advise any one who suffered as I did to get a supply of Plant Juice at once."

For the restoration of nerve force, for the relief and cure of all stomach, liver, kidney and blood ailments "Plant Juice" is the greatest tonic of the age. In an almost incredibly brief time it restores vitality, puts new life, ginger and energy in you, even though your troubles are chronic you will find Plant Juice speedily effective. No remedy has yet been produced that so quickly clears the liver and eradicates every vestige of biliousness and indigestion. Uric acid in the blood is speedily dissolved, it brings relief for those who suffer with rheumatism and kidney troubles. Call today at the Old Corner drug store and ask them about Plant Juice.

congressman had opposing views as to the provisions of the bill on that point until at last the Texan exclaimed with marked emphasis: "The gentleman from Georgia is entirely incorrect."

"The gentleman from Georgia is entirely right," responded Mr. Brantley, who had aided in preparing the bill.

Mr. Gompers asked for re-affirmation of the Denver platform, questioning affecting labor, dwelling especially on the question of injunction. Mr. Gompers said that while originally a republican, he had not acted with that party in recent years. "They did not play fair with the masses and I could not play with them," he said.

Satisfied at Denver.
"You got what you wanted at Denver, didn't you?" asked Mr. Brantley. "We did," replied Mr. Gompers, "and we gave you from 80 to 85 per cent of the labor vote."

James A. Emery, representing the manufacturers, opposed the concession asked by Mr. Gompers. He said his organization was non-partisan. In reply to a question by Mr. Brantley, he admitted that the late Mr. Bryan of St. Louis had been a member of the organization and that he had taken an active part in opposition to the democratic candidates in 1908, but said he had exercised only the privileges of an individual.

"As a matter of fact, is not your organization political in character?" Mr. Bryan asked.

"It is not," said Mr. Emery, "it undertakes to defend itself against the inroads of your party."

Speaks for Stockmen.
Speaking for the American Stock Growers' association, Representative A. W. Rucker of Colorado, a democrat, attacked the reciprocity law, saying stockmen and farmers were united in opposition to it. He also contended for an adequate duty on sugar and declared that never had there been such a misnomer as the farmers' free list bill of the last session of congress.

Albert S. Grigg, of the American Civic Reform association, urged a declaration against polygamy, but was rather summarily disposed of. Congressional Delegate Querson of the Philippine islands, urged Philippine independence.

Delegate Irwin of Hawaii wanted a change in the homestead laws of those islands.

Delegate Strong of Alaska demanded the re-opening of the Alaska coal lands.

Dr. Llewellyn Jordan of Washington, George T. Morgan and others appeared in support of a civil service plank providing for superannuation.

Edward J. Cahill of Chicago advocated a deep waterway from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico.

State Senator Wm. Green of Ohio asked for a pronouncement in favor of the better protection of mine workers.

Mr. Beckham of Kentucky presented a plank to restrict the presidency to one term.

For Health Bureau.
Congressman Gregg, of Texas, ranking democratic member of the House, committee on naval affairs, argued against the building of any more battleships this year and asked that the democratic caucus of the house be sustained on that point.

Professor Irving Fisher of Yale college, Dr. Darlington of New York and Senator Owen of Oklahoma, spoke in advocacy of an independent national health bureau. Bishop Leander of Kansas and other delegates asked the committee to re-affirm the declaration of 1872 in favor of justice to all of whatever nativity, race or color.

CHICAGO LOSES ROUND
IN BOUT WITH GAS CO.
By The Associated Press.

Chicago, June 26.—Another step was taken in the litigation between the People's Gas, Light and Coke company and the City of Chicago, when Federal Judge Eckhardt today denied the sufficiency of the bill of exceptions of the city to the bill of the gas company. The city objected to certain charges that partisanship had entered into the passage of the seventy-cent gas ordinance by the city council. The gas company is seeking to prevent enforcement of the ordinance and has locked horns with the city in the state and federal courts.

HEARING OF HANFORD
CHARGES BEGINS TODAY

Chairman Graham of Congressional Committee Expects to Be Done in Two Weeks.
By The Associated Press.

Seattle, Wash., June 26.—Representative James M. Graham of Illinois, chairman of the house judiciary sub-committee, which will investigate the charges filed against United States District Judge Cornelius H. Hanford said today he hoped to begin the hearing tomorrow, to hold sessions of six hours daily and to complete the hearing in two weeks.

Mr. Graham found on his arrival that Attorney John H. Perry, who filed the most serious charges against Hanford, had not returned from an Eastern trip and that Attorney Thomas R. Horner, who also filed charges, was attending the democratic national convention as a delegate.

The investigators will subpoena Leonard Olson, whose naturalization Judge Hanford revoked, but the Olson case is expected to occupy only a short time. It is expected Judge Hanford will testify for himself.

"The Grocery So Different"

Has a "pull" on the high-class trade of Waco.

It has built up a reputation of being the very best store at which to procure something nice and out of the ordinary.

Nothing short of the very best is ever offered, and the Waco buying—the discriminating public—is not slow to recognize this fact.

Catering to a high-class trade with high-grade food products is our business.

And that is how its "pull" was acquired. A long, hard pull but a winner every time.

Avail yourself of the opportunity—ever yours—and open an account with us for July.

PREFERRED TRAVELING TO WOMEN'S SOCIETY

Chicago, June 26.—Charles Fernald, assistant cashier of a Chicago bank, today obtained a divorce from Mrs. Beanie Swift Fernald, daughter of Louis F. Swift, president of Swift and company, on the ground of desertion. They were married in 1903. Mrs. Fernald separated from her husband in May, 1910.

Her preference for European travel to the society of her husband led to the separation according to her husband.

Mrs. Fernald did not contest the suit, although she was represented in court by counsel.

MISS MINNIE KILLOUGH HAS BRIDGE AT THE HUACO

Wednesday morning found a bridge circle out at the Huaco club in compliment to Miss Lena Woolford, who is quite a bridge enthusiast. There was more than the usual luncheon to bring this pleasing game to its close. Miss Minnie Killough was the hostess and the guests were: Misses Woolford, Mattie Jones, Bert Rowe, Grace Prather, Pauline Carrington, Clara White, Mesdames Frank Foreman, R. M. Killough, J. W. Bass.

TWO CHURCH SOCIETIES WITH MRS. W. D. LACY TODAY

This afternoon will find an interesting joint session of the two women's societies of the Central Presbyterian church, the Mission and the Ladies' Aid. This will find the gathering point on the cool lawn. The special feature of the afternoon will be Mrs. Walter Lacy's talk on the countries of foreign mission work as she saw them during her recent trip around the world. This promises to be a largely attended event, and one both novel and of absorbing interest.

MOONLIGHT OUTING AT PARK FOR MISS WOOLFORD

Among the many others planned for the visit of Miss Lena Woolford of Maryland, was a family supper out at Cameron park. In this Mrs. E. F. Gribble, Miss Susie Sleeper, Miss Minnie Killough and Mrs. John Sleeper arranged the supper feature and invited the members of the family to go out and enjoy the pleasures of the park as well as another evening with Miss Woolford. This was done to the fullest. Incidentally, it may be said that there were just twelve duplicates of this party enjoying the park. How did we ever get along without this recreation ground?

MR. AND MRS. J. W. TAYLOR ISSUE VERBAL INVITATIONS

Wednesday found invitations from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor to a few intimate friends inviting to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Agnes Taylor, to Frank Mann of Vernon. This will be a home ceremony at 6 o'clock on the evening of the tenth of July. Although privately celebrated, this is an event of general interest. The prominence of the bride's family, one of the time-honored of this community, her large connection, together with her personal popularity, makes her marriage an occasion of more than passing moment.

MR. AND MRS. J. J. GRIFFER RECEIVE ON THEIR LAWN

Their abode of Reverend and Mrs. J. J. Greer on Tuesday evening was announced as a means towards a closer acquaintance between the members of the church and the thirty or more who are late acquaintances. This purpose was most happily fulfilled. There was a large attendance, a remaining for social conversation, a happy play hour for the little folks, and a very pleasant evening from every standpoint. The lawn, always spacious and inviting, was strung with Mikado lights among the trees. The full moon played with its ripples of light while comfortable chairs in plenty and flecks of color in art squares was the provision for enticing the caller to remain. The Earnest Workers were hostesses to assist Mrs. Greer. There was the panning of cooling refreshment wherever one chanced to sit. In all, there was cordiality and a successful realization of the purpose intended.

MISS VIRGINIA ANN COLEMAN HAS HER FIRST GUESTS

The all eventful event of a first birthday came to baby Virginia Ann Coleman on Tuesday. This could not be passed unnoticed, so the fond mother, Mrs. Robert Coleman, of Bell's Hill, invited several ladies and lassies of the same diminutive age for a birthday party. All came in their dainty little dresses and were coaxed into their best behavior while the animal crackers were passed, and the toys drawn from among the trees. The birthday cake with its one tiny wax candle was equal to a baby's dream, for such had never been seen. It was an eventful hour for the babies and a very pleasant coming together for the mothers. The guest list is: Babies Nell Colgin, Jack Picklin, Edward Stratton, Susanne Carroll, Will Carroll, Jr., William Coleman and Beaumont Cornett.

MRS. BEN GRAY KENDALL GIVES SWEET PEA LUNCHEON

The compliment to Miss Margaret Brown of Wednesday morning was a beautiful sweet pea luncheon. Mrs. Ben Gray Kendall was the hostess, and for this bonny bride, one of her favorites, Mrs. Kendall made a beautiful picture table. From hundreds of the fragrant sweet blooms she arranged a heart for either end of the table and caught these into a single decorative device by ribbon rings looped into a graceful bow. To give relief in height there was a vase overspread with the same pink tone in carnations. But there was yet again a pink touch. This came in flecks of rose at each plate, bon bon box crowned with rose buds. The center in each was a sweet face, the strong reminder of the honoree's profile with her blonde waving hair. This all made a beautiful table. Around it sat the hostess, her honoree, and the ten girl friends most closely associated with Miss Brown. The one exception was Miss Mary Olmstead of New York, who is just arrived and was for the first time among the friends she had met upon a former visit to Mrs. Edward Bolton.

MISS KATE FRIEND, Editor.

Miss Brown has been in demand as honoree since her approaching marriage was made known, but no courtesy has been more beautifully paid than was this luncheon of Mrs. Kendall.

MRS. W. P. KILLINGSWORTH HAS MORNING BRIDGE GAME

The presence in her home of Miss McNeill from Missouri, gave Mrs. W. P. Killingsworth the desire that some of her friends might be with her guests for a morning. Miss McNeill's fondness for bridge decided that these guests should be selected from Mrs. Killingsworth's card playing friends. Her arrangements gave the cool, shady porch for the game, and the setting in an artistic way of the sunflower for decorations. The brilliant glow appeared again in the refreshment service in several pretty little touches. It was seen in the tallies and otherwise made a patron in keeping with the midsummer prairie favorite. After the introduction and a few words with hostess and honoree the game was formed. It ended with an award of the leading score prize to Miss McNeill. Since a guest prize had been provided, Mrs. Killingsworth transferred this to the second score which was made by Mrs. Bayless Harris. The consolation cut was made by Mrs. H. K. Brewer. The salad plate afforded yet another bit of gay conversation. This was quite an artistic little party as well as an enjoyable company. Those present were: Mesdames R. G. Wendling, Bayless Harris, George Tod, Ed Laughlin, William Carroll, Ben Jennings, Frank Trau, F. J. Lennox, John Ray, B. F. Dancer, Ike Mayfield, John D. Mayfield, Harry Balne, H. K. Brewer, W. B. Hays, T. D. Hays, Robert Tolson, Loraine Rogers, Brooks Pearson, Charles Ivy, Misses Jane Moore, Kate Friend, Ida Duke and Berta Mackay.

MRS. PEARL LOVELOVE HAS MORNING GUESTS

It is not often happens that seven congenial guests are brought together as honorees at a single party. But this was the courtesy from Mrs. Pearl Lovelove to seven friends who are now in the city. These were Miss Ruth Evans, Mrs. Leonard Dickson of Chicago, Mrs. Bolivar Billingsley and Mrs. Bunch of Marlin, Mrs. Fred Tennant of Dallas, Mrs. J. W. Bondurant of Tyler, and Mrs. Paul Montgomery, who is among her old home friends. Among other provisions for an affair more elaborate than the accustomed summer morning pastime was the four-course luncheon served by Mrs. Lovelove as the diversion of the last hour. Her guests were, with her from half after nine until the morning was more than passed. The details of transition made this one of the notable affairs of the week and the most pretentious in the rounds which has marked the presence in the city of Mesdames Tennant and Bondurant. Mrs. Billingsley came up especially to participate.

MR. AND MRS. ED STURGIS COMPLIMENT MISS BROWN

Friends are vying with each other in devising something novel as an ante nuptial courtesy to Miss Margaret Brown. It was the happy plan of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sturgis to invite guests for supper out at the Beville home near the beautiful Dripping Springs. Previously, Mrs. Sturgis arranged her tables at fresco, and used the wealth of fern for her rustic basket effect. Two long tables were made both beautiful and appetizing. There was a barbeque supper and a world of good cheer over it. A. B. Cowan was the excellent presiding genius of the spot. Later the fun of a cake walk was indulged, for the real cake was in waiting. Mr. William Early and Mrs. William Edmond won the spur in the contest. There was a large guest list and not one but who had a jolly good time. In arranging this list, it had been more the desire to bring together those who had enjoyed previous outings of the same kind at the same place. One of the new and very pleasing features, however, was the introduction of Miss Rowena Sturgis, who is just returned from school and who was named as honoree with Miss Brown. Those who spent the evening so pleasantly were: Mesdames Etelle Horne, Jimmie Horne, Chatham of San Antonio, Kate Edmond, Ida Orand, Karen Heard, Rosalie Sturgis, Minniebell Webb, Nettie May Wilkes, Marjorie Crawford, Dorothy Finley, Edwina Sturgis, Langdon Luedde, Vandevanter, A. J. Beville, Harold Shear, Wilbur Crawford, Vernon Willis, Luke Moore, Wilson Wood, W. D. Lacy, Jr., W. N. Orand, Jr., Holt Massey of New York, and Sam Webb; Mesdames A. L. Brown and Quitman Finley, Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Wheeler, William Edmond, William Early.

Society Notes.

Within a few days Mrs. J. R. Ferrell will be matron of the former Crespi home on Washington street. Some freshening is being done, after which Mrs. Ferrell and Miss Viola Barton will be at home.

Mrs. Edwin Harding has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winfrey, after a detention at the sanitarium for an operation. This unexpected event has deprived Mrs. Harding from the visit among her friends which she had hoped to have when she came from Alexandria, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mac Richey have written that they may be expected from their wedding trip with the coming Sunday.

With the first & 4 the coming week the Charles Boynton cottage closes. Mrs. Boynton and the children go to Boulder and later other Colorado resorts. Mr. Boynton will go out when the season is farther advanced.

The last of this week finds Mrs. Bland Brown returned from the North. She will be accompanied by Miss Maud Brown, who has spent the winter at Saint Mary's, Indiana. Automotoring to Colorado seems to have taken the fancy of Waco society. Several parties are planned or planning for this novel way of reaching "Kool Kolorado."

A post card from Miss Edna Ewing, small as it is, bears much of local mention from Los Angeles. The Ewing-Barrett-Warner-Smith-Pritchard party is located for the time at the West Lake hotel and report the arrival of the day previous of Mrs. A. V. Cross and Miss Olive Ware. The party has also met Mrs. Ashburn, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell and Miss Thelma Ashburn. Miss Ewing attended the wedding of Miss Maud Wood. There is talk of forming a Waco-California summer club for excursions and the other tourist pleasures.

Among the homecomings for the season is that of Miss Clarel Humphries from the State University. Miss Humphries, although pleased to a degree with her association at the university, is always pleased to resume her old place among the home friends.

During the absence of Mrs. H. B. Mistrot in Colorado, which absence begins with middle July, Mrs. William Mistrot will maintain the H. B. Mistrot home on Nineteenth and Morrow.

Miss Eddie May Higgins is leaving with early July to spend the remainder of the season with friends in California.

Mrs. Llewellyn Aubrey's breakfast and Miss Karen Heard's evening party are today's compliments to Miss Margaret Brown as the next honoree.

Mrs. W. B. Braselton is arranging for a July closing of her Austin avenue home. The family will seek a cooler climate and be absent until autumn.

It is rather late to be discussing the Easter lily, but it has a new name, so Marie Corelli says, and we must come to recognize. The Bernardus lily, the Easter lily, the Ascension lily, all these names are familiar for the stately flower which comes to us at the Easter tide. But it is the legend that when the angel Gabriel announced to the Virgin that her's was to be the Christchild, she carried one of the beautiful, pure lilies. All the old masters place the lily somewhere in their annunciation pictures, and many of the Madonna's have the angel bearing the same, or it appears in either device. So when Marie Corelli refers to the "Madonna lily," she is really giving a name which has held through the time-honored worship of the Madonna.

Mrs. A. L. Brown during Wednesday invited a few friends to be in her home after the ceremony which united Miss Margaret Brown and Harold Shear in wedlock next Tuesday evening. This will be quite an informal reception and limited in the guest list.

Those who had the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis' hospitality on Tuesday evening are profuse in their praise of the beauty of the fern dale at Dripping Springs. This lily in its perfection of beauty, Mrs. Chesley Jurney is among the recent arrivals. She has come from Washington City to be the guest of Miss Karen Heard until September.

Why burden our comfort with a hat these days? A jaunty parasol is more picturesque, to say nothing of the more agreeable feeling. Hats are worn less than they ever were.

Society is literally out of doors these moonlight nights. It is impossible to enumerate all the small family parties who take supper at the park, on the Bosque banks, at the Fish Pond, and at the other resorts.

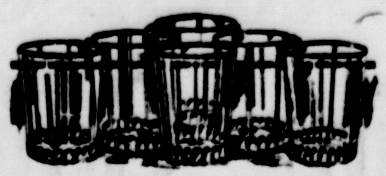

With the republican national convention ended and the democrats in session, there is still a third na-

JEROME AND THAW CLASH SOME MORE

LAWYER'S QUESTIONING AS TO STANFORD WHITE ANGERS THE OTHER.

By The Associated Press.
White Plains, N. Y., June 26.—Harry K. Thaw took the stand again today in his attempt to prove his sanity and obtain his release from Matteawan. He was questioned at length by the state's counsel, William T. Jerome.

Thaw's counsel, Clarence S. Shearn, objected so frequently and interrupted the testimony to such an extent that Judge Keogh asked that the witness be allowed to answer questions in his own way. Later the court threatened to stop the examination unless he could get the co-operation of counsel.

"I can not pass upon this man's sanity," said the court, "unless I have opportunity to observe him as he answers the questions asked him. If Mr. Jerome asks competent questions and it produces the effect of fagging the witness I can't help it."

"Is this a mental examination?" Thaw asked of Jerome.

"Yes."

"Well, I refuse to assist you."

"Aren't you perfectly willing to show this court your state of mind?" The witness said he was not.

"Are you not willing to give Judge Keogh opportunity to decide upon your sanity?"

"Learned alienists will give Judge Keogh plenty of opportunity," Thaw replied.

The codicil in Thaw's will was read in which it was provided that damages should be given to certain young women upon whom indignities had been committed. Thaw said the codicil had as its purpose to obtain damages from Stanford White.

"For whom were the damages intended?"

"If you want to make yourself contemptible, I'll not assist you," said Thaw with heat. He added that he would not participate "in degrading and blackening the character of a dead man," (referring to Stanford White). The witness repeated the insinuation made by his lawyer several times during the trial that Jerome is serving private interests.

"For whom do you think I am acting?" asked Jerome.

"The mantle of Abraham Hummel tell upon your shoulders after you sent him to the workhouse," said Thaw.

Mr. Jerome frequently shifted the base of his attack with the apparent purpose of confusing Thaw. Switching abruptly at one point, he asked:

"If you were not insane when you shot White, it was murder was it?"

"It would be if the jury said so," Thaw replied, refusing to lose his calm.

Asked whether he had ever shopped in England for a Mrs. Paget whom he mentioned in his will, Thaw said he had not.

He shopped for cousins of Jerome, he said, and added:

"Who certainly must be mighty ashamed of you."

"Why were you dismissed from Harvard?" was Jerome's query on another quick shift of ground.

"I never was dismissed; you know it," Thaw answered hotly.

"I left at the same time four other young men left with whom I was playing poker," he added.

Practically every question asked by Jerome was met with an objection from Clarence J. Shearn. Thaw's lawyer. He was defending his client every inch of the way with every legal recourse at his command to avoid the state of "fag" which proved the undoing of Thaw in his other efforts to get out of Matteawan.

In explanation of one of his letters, Thaw talked at great length. It appeared as though he were talking against time in order to prevent Jerome from asking him any more questions.

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw sat in the court room all during the day listening to her husband's testimony, her gaze riveted on his face.

To Extend Canadian Road.
By The Associated Press.

Chicago, June 26.—Wm. McKenzie of the Canadian Northern railway today announced a construction program for 1912 which will include 500 miles of new track in Alberta and the possible extension of 300 miles of track of a branch to Thib river landing.

Perfectly Tailored Summer Suits

To make a light-weight suit of Summer fabrics, and make it light, cool, and yet stylish, shape-retaining and perfect fitting is an art not possessed by ordinary tailors.

Summer materials require great care and an expert knowledge of how to cut, shape and sew them. They are hard to work, and the services of highly skilled operatives is essential if the finished garment is to be free from the usual defects of warm-weather clothes.

We sell "ALCO SYSTEM" Clothes—the kind that are always dependable. Their makers have had years of experience in the tailoring of fine fabrics and the making of garments that are distinctively styled and which hold their shape under all conditions of wear.

Local News Notes

Rev. H. D. Knickerbocker, pastor of the Austin Avenue Methodist church, has returned from Austin, where he delivered the first sermon in the Grace Methodist church, a new edifice just completed at a cost of $50,000.

Arrangements of the stock show at Kessel, to be held today, were completed in Waco yesterday by Dr. L. R. Herrington. Automobile and horse races and a ball game will fill in the day until 5 o'clock this afternoon when Governor Colquhoun will deliver an address.

To boost the organization at Teague of a wholesale grocery and also to advertise the chataqua, which will be held June 27 to July 8, a delegation of Teague citizens has been in Waco. Included were President Davis of the Business League, Secretary Headlee of the Business League and the Chataqua association and Messrs. J. C. Chumney, R. H. Waldrop, J. P. Ham, J. C. Hendrix, and J. B. Watson. J. J. Alexander, president of the State bank, J. A. Needham, R. M. Bryan, Senators Vardaman of Mississippi and Davis of Arkansas are among the attractions on the chataqua program.

Editor J. L. Spencer of the Mart Herald, was a visitor in Waco yesterday.

Hon. C. A. Boynton returned Tuesday from the republican convention which adjourned in Chicago Saturday evening.

M. W. Jamison of Humble was a visitor in Waco yesterday morning. Mrs. J. W. Bailey and children left yesterday for their ranch near Jonesboro, where they will spend several weeks on a pleasure jaunt.

R. J. Eddy, of Georgetown, was noted upon the streets of Waco yesterday.

State Students Secretary John L. Foster of the Y. M. C. A., had business here yesterday in connection with the local association.

Colonel John L. Spurlin of Hamilton passed through the city yesterday morning en route to his home.

BRIDGE BUILDER TARGET FOR ROCKS THROWN

"No, you are mistaken in thinking that a train ran over me. To be plain, the cause of this 'jelly fish' appearance of my face, which you will observe is somewhat disfigured, can be described in three simple words, 'negro boy—rock'."

The foregoing is in substance the statement made by O. E. Dugan, employed in the bridge building department of the Texas Central railroad, when he appeared at the police station yesterday afternoon with blood streaming from an ugly gash on his cheek, and other painful bruises about his face. He explained further that he, with a gang of bridge builders were at work near the T. C. roundhouse in West Waco, when suddenly a shower of rocks descended upon them. They looked again, and saw a small band of negro boys carrying in many directions. Dugan and his friend then proceeded to the city hall and unfolded their story.

Station Officers Lee Huff and Alva Tilley, accompanied the men in the auto patrol to the scene of the alleged rock throwing. A thorough search failed to reveal the whereabouts of the negro boys.

HITTING PITCHER WINS GAME FOR GALVESTON

HARBIN STRIKES OUT NINE: PIRATES FLOP AND WIN BY 3 TO 0 SCORE.

Batting Eye of Wacoans Gone, But Near-Scoring Feature Greater Part of Game.

(By Whoppee.)

The lowly worm has "turned" and bit the hand that fed it and will continue to feed it until along about Friday night, and to go back a little has been feeding it since the morning of June 25, or thereabouts. It bit with a vengeance, too; bit about three bites in the first of the fifth inning, and then, gorged, did the childish dog in the manger stunt, refusing, or rather not scoring any more, and refusing to let Waco score. According to rule 87 in the blue book, and past decisions as cited in 58 Texas 587, Waco should have won over Galveston again yesterday, and according to the score of Tuesday's game by a score of some proportions, but it was not on the program. And if it is on taps that Galveston should win again this afternoon, we favor punching Galveston's meal ticket so full of holes that it will not be honored.

Harbin, in the box for Galveston yesterday, gets credit for the victory, hitting for two bases in the fifth, with the sacks loaded, and scoring two men. In addition, he had something out there with him besides his glove, striking out nine men. Duguey, who struck out twice Tuesday, proceeded to duplicate the stunt yesterday. Crichtlow followed suit, fanning twice, and Renard, who replaced him in the eighth as a pinch hitter with two men on base, also fanned. Jost, pitching for Waco, fanned twice and was passed once, and then the Indian sign worked on him by Manager Hardy, who sent in Carson to pinch hit for him in the ninth, "boomeranged," Carson also fanning. Stewart, in the ninth, when every muscle was being strained to score, or at least get a score started, also fanned. Reilly, the first man up in that session, knocked an easy popout to short.

It has been said that Eugene, or more affectionately, "Gene" Moore, will pitch for Galveston this afternoon. If he does and Duguey and Crichtlow have not by that time found their batting eye, we're in favor of trading them off for a dog and shooting the dog. As for Jost, "it's only possible for a pitcher to hit the ball," according to a fan's fanning in the grand stand yesterday afternoon, so no charge is to be preferred against him.

All Signs Fail. Waco was due to score several times yesterday, the men left on bases, nine, indicating that, but all signs failed. Duguey, first up in the first inning, was passed, advanced to second on Akin's sacrifice, stole third and was caught at the plate on an attempted double steal. Beck, his co-partner in crime, who had been passed, had started to second and reached it, incidentally third. McLaurin was an easy out. The next attempt at scoring was in the sixth, when, with two out, Beck and McLaurin both bunted safely. Beck reaching third. Wohleben then knocked a grounder to third, where Beck was caught.

In the seventh, with two out, Stewart hit for two bases and stole third. Jost was passed and stole second, and then Tanner, who had replaced Duguey, hit an easy grounder to second, being retired at first. In the eighth, Akin reached first on H. Williams' error, Williams failing to touch the bag after catching the ball thrown from third by Dodd; Beck popped out, McLaurin singled. Wohleben popped out and Renard fanned. The closing chapter was told first.

This sad story and one word explains it all—Harbin. Three Runs in Fifth. Galveston's three runs were made in the fifth, and before and after the plate was not even within hailing distance. In the fifth, however, after H. Williams had fanned, Dodd was passed. Alexander reached first on Akin's error in fielding at third; Kaplan hit one through Akin that was credited a hit, and with three men on base Harbin drove the ball on a line for the left-center fence. Stewart touched the ball with his glove hand as it went by, but it was in a hurry and Dodd and Alexander scored. Clemens then knocked a sacrifice fly to rightfield, scoring Kaplan. Maag popped out to center field.

Harbin, who jumped into fame yesterday, is not unknown in Waco. He started in the game at A. & M. and into organized ball with Tompkins, appearing here last spring with the Dall Gear and his Kansas aggregation on its training trip. He began the season, however, in North Texas and was purchased by Galveston a few days ago from Cleburne, along with Hiatt, the purchase price for the pair of them being given as $300. Hiatt lost the Tuesday game by a 11 to 0 score. Harbin won yesterday by a 3 to 0 score and seemed to enjoy it. He had everything that a pitcher is supposed to have and used it. He was a little wild in the first inning, passing two men, but the worst hole he was in was in the eighth. Jost pitching for Waco, got away with his game yesterday aside from the fifth, when questionable hits and errors were bunched on him. He

ROUTERS' EXCURSION TO FORT WORTH SUNDAY

Many Waco fans are making arrangements to go to Fort Worth on Sunday morning, the Katy having announced a special excursion on account of the Sunday ball game with the Panthers. The tickets are only good on train leaving at 8 o'clock and returning at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Fort Worth 5, Beaumont 0.

By The Associated Press.

Fort Worth, June 26.—Fort Worth shut Beaumont out again today, Perritt turning the trick this time. The Oilers outbait the Panthers, but their hits were scattered. The locals ran wild on the bases. Umpire Van Sickle chased H. Dawson and Larson of the visitors for talking from the bench. He also put catcher Lemon of Fort Worth out of the game for protesting a decision.

DOG IMPOUNDER SAYS DEATH AXE SWINGING

DOG WAGON AFTER WACO'S CANINE INHABITANTS MINUS THE LICENSE TAG.

Foe of Curs Announces Money Must Be Forthcoming or Doggie Must Bite the Dust.

That there are about five thousand dogs in Waco was a statement made at the city hall yesterday.

These canines are restricted to no one class of species. Indeed no! Waco has one or more of almost every kind of dog reared, either in the kennel of the rich or in the back lot of the tenement district.

John Crawford, city impounder, is not interested in the kind, the names, nor the owners of the canine. Instead he is anxious that a greater per cent of these dogs be adorned with the municipal tags bearing the warning to "quit kickin' my dog around."

He said yesterday that few more than 300 licenses have been sold to date. Acting with the backing and the instructions of the city council, he has started the "dog wagon" in the city.

Team with a driver and a dog chaser have been secured by the dog catcher and he intends to catch every dog in the city that has not been presented by its owner with an emblem of canine respectability.

No licenses will be sold from the wagon. This is the first rule laid down by Mr. Stewart in the campaign against dogs whose family connections are so hazy as to preclude the possibility of a city license. No sweet-voiced entreaty or loud-sounding threat will be sufficient to release a dog in return for the license fee, he declares.

The dog will continue his trip to the dog headquarters, where he will be released on payment of the license and additional costs for the delay. Should this arrangement be unsatisfactory to the dog's owner, it's the sulphur route or home or route to the promised land for Mr. Dog.

Mr. Walker declares himself in favor of a dog enumeration. In this fashion the addresses of dog owners may be discovered without a search and the owner of each dog personally informed of the approaching funeral unless the city treasury is the recipient of a license fee.

ROWING CONTEST ON CLASSIC HUDSON

SIX BIG UNIVERSITIES TO BE REPRESENTED—CALIFORNIA SENDS EIGHT.

Cornell and Columbia Are Favorites. Railroad to Run Observation Train.

Special to The Morning News.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26.—A memorable contest in American rowing annals is promised in the Interstate Regatta to be held on the Hudson opposite this city Saturday afternoon, when eight-oared crews representing six colleges—Cornell, Columbia, Syracuse, Wisconsin and Leland Stanford university—will measure boat lengths with each other in the annual four-mile race for the Varsity Challenge cup, now held by Cornell.

Preceding the big varsity race there will be the usual two-mile race between four-oared crews representing all but Stanford and Wisconsin, and the two-mile freshmen eight-oared race, in which all but Stanford will be represented. The prediction as to the memorable quality of the regatta is based on the observation of the veteran coaches in charge of the young oarsmen and others who have followed rowing for twenty years or more.

"Never have I seen six crews so good as the six university eight-oared teams here," said Charles E. Courtney, the coach of Cornell university. "The contest between Cornell and Columbia last year was truly a wonderful race, but I believe that all of this year's crews will be more closely bunched at the finish than they were in 1911. In my opinion, there will not be an inch of the four-mile varsity race that will not be worth seeing."

For the great regatta 120 college rowing men have trained. They are divided into the 15 crews representing the colleges named. To see these men in the pink of physical fitness after months of training, is to realize the highest possible attainment in the development of young men for athletic competition.

The hour set for the big race—5:15—is fifteen minutes after the ebb tide reaches its maximum. The freshmen race will have a strong ebb, and the tide will be running well for the varsity four-oared race.

The Poughkeepsie course is a straight deep stretch of water beginning three miles north of the Poughkeepsie bridge, and finishing one mile south of that structure.

The West Shore railroad will run the usual observation train alongside of the crews. No vessels will be allowed to follow the oarsmen, and this rule will be enforced by revenue cutters, which will also make it their business to see that yachts and small boats do not crowd into the course from the three-mile mark down to the finish line.

Cornell and Columbia are the favorites, the former having slightly the preference on its record of performances. In twenty-one races in which they have competed during the last three years, the Ithaca men have been defeated but once, that exception being the freshmen race of last year, which was won by Columbia. The splendid fight by Columbia, the New York crew made against Cornell last year has made it the favorite of many this year, because the Columbians are confident that their crew is faster, stronger and better trained than their eight of 1911.

Cornell, on the other hand, has seven of last year's veterans in the boat, but Coach Courtney says that the crew is no better than it was a year ago. "We have a fine crew," said Mr. Courtney, "and whether we win or lose, they will be a credit to the college and the coach."

Syracuse, which made such a poor showing in 1911, has developed the best crew it has had in several years, and the coaches of the other colleges feel that Ten Eyck's men will have to be reckoned with, not regarded as so formidable.

The Leland Stanford crew have added greatly to the interest of the regatta by coming 2000 miles without coach or boat to meet the eastern colleges. Physically, they are the equal of any other men on the river, but they have not had the training to make them dangerous competitors of these other colleges, who have had for years the services of professional coaches. Before leaving California, the Stanford crew defeated the University of California and the University of Washington in a triangular race. They have come here under greater disadvantages than any of the others. They expected to find in New York a new Simms shell, which they ordered from England, but the English strikes had delayed shipment of their boat. Columbia, however, gave them the use of the Simms shell in which their varsity rowed last year, and the Californians say that this boat fits them better than they have ever used at home.

BURRELL OATES MUST DIE IN THE RULING

After Lying in Jail for Eight Years
He Must Ascend the Scaffold and Forfeit His Life.

By The Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, June 26.—After lying in jail for eight years and six times facing a jury on trial for his life, Burrell Oates, the negro slayer of Sol Aronoff, the Dallas merchant, is at last to pay the penalty of his crime with his life. The court of criminal appeals today after four times reversing the case, affirmed it. Oates was granted one new trial by the district court without recourse to an appeal.

Aronoff was killed in his little store in South Dallas on the night of November 30, 1904. Evidence adduced during the different trials showed that Oates, in company with Holly Vann, a white man, entered the store, made a small purchase and afterwards attempted to rob the proprietor. a gun and came to the defense of her husband.

When the shooting had subsided Aronoff lay dead. Holly Vann was tried and convicted of murder and hanged. Oates' first trial resulted in a conviction and a life sentence. He appealed his case and has been appealing it at the end of his subsequent trials at frequent intervals ever since. The last appeal came up from Waxahachie where Oates was taken on a change of venue.

SAN ANTONIO DRILLER ANXIOUS TO BORE WELL

HOT WELL COMMITTEE TO GET THREE OFFERS—DUKE IS ELECTED TREASURER.

The directors of the Hot Well company met yesterday afternoon to consider a proposition for drilling a well which was submitted by L. M. Bettison of San Antonio. Mr. Bettison came to Waco upon invitation of a committee which has the contract for drilling in hand, and made a proposition which is looked upon favorably by the directors. Mr. Fowler of Bartlesville, Okla., another driller has notified Bart Moore that his proposition will be submitted at once and this together with those submitted by H. G. Johnston of Corsicana, and Mr. Bettison will be jointly considered at the next meeting of the directors.

The next meeting will be called by President Sanger after the directors have had an opportunity of consulting E. C. Street, who has been appointed attorney for the board, relative to the initial steps for incorporation, which will be early next week.

W. S. Duke Jr., was elected treasurer of the company and The News is asked to announce that he will immediately send his collector, duly authorized by letter to the stockholders to get the first installment of their subscriptions. It is necessary that 50 per cent of the stock be paid in before the company can be incorporated, and it is therefore imperative that the subscriptions be forthcoming.

W. T. Watt was enthusiastic in praise of the efforts the directors have made and the success they have attained, and rumor as it that Mr. Watt will himself sink a well if the company is successful in bringing in one. Mr. Watt said his belief in the success of the enterprise is sufficient at present to induce him to but as the Hot Well company has the project already on foot, the Royal hotel well will not be started until the company's well is completed.

City Commissioners Caulfield and Littlefield were present at the meeting and are co-operating in every way to the desired end.

NORTH AMERICAN GYMNASIUM UNION DENOUNCES HANFORD

By The Associated Press.

Indianapolis, June 26.—Resolutions condemning the action of Federal Judge Cornelius Hanford of St. Louis, in refusing naturalization papers to a socialist; demanding direct participation of the people in amending constitutions and protesting against alleged efforts of religious organizations to obtain control of public schools were adopted at the closing session of the convention of the North American Gymnasium union today.

The union determined not to change the place of the next national turnfest, which will be held in Denver in June. The next convention of the union will be held in San Francisco in 1915.

BALTIMORE BARS SOAK THE SOAKS

By The Associated Press.

Baltimore, June 26.—Following are the notes of a reporter who was on the waterwagon until instructed to investigate personally whether the price of drinks have been boosted during convention week.

"Stop No. 1.—Asked bartender whether price of drinks had been increased. He said 'Buy and find out.' Bought. Asked for gin rickey. Price 25 cents. Note: Can get one for 15 cents in Chicago or Cleveland.

"Stop No. 2.—Thought is best to keep on buying. Scotch highball this time had to mix 'em, but—well, 25 cents? Ought to call 'em high priced balls.

"Stop No. 3.—Like this place. It's cool and rye high balls this time. Sure the decanter stuff'll do. Got a pink check calling for 30 cents payment (important note—this is positively an outrage, only 15 cents at home).

"Stop No. 4.—Place had hardest entrance to get into. Stumbled on the steps. Took a Bronx cocktail. Pretty good, too. What, thirty cents? why say, I can—another, well just as you say. Stever doesn't drink. Must have heard of prices here. Get me, Stever."

Four stops were all the reporter was allowed to make.

U. S. CAVALRY IS ORDERED TO BORDER

By The Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, June 26.—Colonel E. Z. Steever, in command of the department of Texas, declared today that the four troops of the Third United States cavalry had been ordered from Fort Sam Houston to the border here, but the mounts of the second cavalry had failed to arrive. The second cavalry recently relieved the Fifth cavalry, but brought no horses from the Philippines. The apparent approach of rebels and federal activity at Juarez and border points practically made it imperative according to Colonel Steever, that a mounted patrol be placed along the international line.

TAFITES LAY LOW.

By The Associated Press.

Chicago, June 26.—Members of the subcommittee of nine appointed from the republican national committee last night to wait on President Taft and learn his wishes regarding the conduct of his campaign, will not meet him until July 8. It was the plan for the committee to go to Washington on July 1, but the president today caused telegrams to be sent to the committeemen asking them to postpone the visit one week.

No explanation of the president's reason for requesting the delay was given. Committeemen think he desires to wait until after the democratic nomination before making any campaign plans.

Waterville, Me., June 26.—Colby college today conferred the degree of doctor of laws upon President Stratton D. Brooks of the University of Oklahoma.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN REVIVAL INTERESTING

REV. COLBY D. HALL CONDUCTING SERVICES—SPECIAL MUSIC A FEATURE.

The meeting being conducted by Rev. Colby D. Hall at the Central Christian church moved out of doors last night on account of the warmer weather. The lawn is fitted up in a much superior manner to the former arrangement and the good crowd last night was delighted.

The special music is an attractive feature. A splendid gospel solo is sung each night, and on some evenings the Central male quartette sings. Tonight little Miss Lorene Hamilton is expected to give one of her charming songs.

Rev. Mr. Hall is giving the folks something to think about in his strong scriptural sermons. The question box is open for anyone to ask questions on any scriptural subject. Rev. Mr. Hall is a Bible scholar who can handle the questions thoroughly and will do so in a fair spirit.

The meeting will not continue long, so all are urged to attend from the start. The sermon tonight will be on the question of "Baptism, Its Scriptural Meaning." The ordinance of baptism will be administered to several candidates at the close of the service.

ST. JOHN WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

By The Associated Press.

Toronto, Can., June 26.—The delegates to the thirtieth annual convention of the Knights of St. John were occupied today with business. The winners in the drill competitions were announced this afternoon as follows:

Men—First commandery, number 2, Buffalo; second, Commandery No. 13, Buffalo; third, Commandery No. 37, Syracuse; fourth, Commandery No. 128, Detroit.
Ladies—First, Columbus, Ohio; second, Albany, N. Y.; third, Rochester, N. Y.; fourth, Toronto.

GARMENT WORKERS CHANGE TO THE CANADIAN UNION

By The Associated Press.

Montreal, June 26.—As a result of disagreements arising out of the management of the garment workers' strike here, in which five thousand employees are involved, a number of striking operatives today formally severed their connection with the American Garment Workers' union, to join the Canadian Garment Workers' union.

They contend that the United States organization enriched itself at the expense of its Canadian supporters. They will also go back to work.

MILLIONS GO ABROAD FOR SKINS OF GOATS Special to The Morning News.

Washington, June 26.—Hundreds of inquiries regarding the possibilities in the United States of a great goat industry are now reaching the department of commerce and labor. These inquiries are the result of a recent statement by the bureau of statistics that $250,000,000 had been sent out of the country in the last decade to purchase goat skins for use in this country, and that the commercial value of the 500,000,000 goats which these skins represented would, had they been grown in the United States, have approximated $1,000,000,000.

These suggestions, coupled with the further fact that goats of the class supplying the skins in question could be grown upon semi-arid or semi-mountainous lands in the United States, now practically unused, have added to the interest indicated by the inquiries now being made.

For the current fiscal year ended with the present month the total value of this article imported would approximate $24,000,000, the number of animals represented by these importations being about 45,000,000.

The number of goats in the United States, according to the census of 1910, increased about 50 per cent in the last decade, a very large proportion of the 3,000,000 enumerated by the census of 1910 being in the Southwestern states.

COTTON MARKET

HAS SHARP BREAK

RECOVERS PARTIALLY, HOWEVER, AND CLOSES STEADY AT DECLINE OF 2 TO 8.

New York, June 26.—The cotton market had a sharp break at the opening today, but recovered partially and closed steady at a net decline of from 2 to 8 points.

Influenced by weak cables and good weather in the south, the market opened steady at a decline of 5 to 11 points and active months sold about 7 to 11 points net lower during the first few minutes, with July leading the decline on a renewal of scattering liquidation for over the notices expected next Friday.

Reports that southern correspondents of a prominent local spot house had estimated the condition of the crop at $2.5 per cent subsequently accounted for much of the selling and for a while after the opening there was more or less general liquidation, as well as considerable pressure from local bears. It appeared, however, that there was still a good demand in evidence around 11.40 for October and while the buying was not particularly aggressive it was sufficient to check the decline.

Later another private report issued by a Wall street house making the condition 80.1 and claiming a reduction of 6 1/2 per cent in acreage, caused some covering by early sellers, and the market reached the best point of the day in the late trading, when active months sold to within 2 or 3 points of last night's close.

There were rumors just before the close that preliminary figures of the National Ginners' association indicated an average condition of about 84 per cent, and last prices were 2 to 3 points off from the best on new crop positions under renewed liquidation. Trading was fairly active at the start, but became quiet as soon as the early selling orders had been absorbed, and after the rally of 5 or 6 points from the lowest showed comparatively little features.

Receipts 4753 bales against 3579 last week and 2544 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1732 bales against 1718 last year; at Galveston 557 against 610 last year and at Houston 51 against 128 last year. Futures closed steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, June 26.—Cotton futures opened steady at a decline of 2 to 3 points on poor cables. At no time during the morning session did the market show any life. In the trading up to noon the most active months went 5 to 6 points under yesterday's close. In the afternoon the market was dull but steady. July option was inclined to advance. In the early trading up to 2 o'clock July went 3 points over yesterday's close. Futures closed unchanged to 4 points up compared with yesterday's close.

NO GAMBLING IN SPAIN.

Madrid, June 26.—Following upon the objections raised in the chamber of deputies against gambling at Barcelona, the government has adopted the most radical measures. Gambling has been prohibited throughout Spain, even in the most aristocratic clubs. Telegraphic orders to this effect have been sent to all towns in Spain. All the clubs and gambling saloons have been closed. The San Sebastian Casino has closed its doors and the employees have been dismissed. The government will study a system of regulation.

"THE SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENTS."

Again we are approaching what might be called our "annual holocaust," that is, the great national holiday which we celebrate every year with a wonderful display of fireworks and a criminal loss of life and limb. It also has been called "The Slaughter of the Innocents." The time is near at hand for this dreadful festival of death, and already the newspapers of the land are constantly agitating the question of a sane Fourth. This article is not written in the spirit of opposition against its universal celebration throughout the length and breadth of this fair land of ours. On the contrary, every American citizen, man, woman and child, should be thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the day. The point at issue is this: Why celebrate the Fourth with the use of dangerous fireworks? Why not seek some other way of expressing our exuberance of feeling. Let the display of patriotism be spontaneous, wholesome and hearty. Make programs for the day which will include the boys and the girls, the fathers and the mothers; and begin early to stir the life and enthusiasm of the children for a love of country and loyalty to it. If the boy insist on a noisy demonstration and will have fireworks, give him the sort which will not endanger life and limb. Every year, magazines and newspapers print and illustrate articles and searching editorials pleading with the people to save the lives and the limbs of the children and to save their relatives and themselves the harrowing sight of their suffering. It would seem that argument of any sort would not be necessary to convince the thinking mind of the crying need for protection for the children against themselves in such a vitally important matter. The list of accidents and casualties is surely convincing proof of the necessity for safeguarding the children. You are generally capable of keeping your boys and girls from various kinds of dangers, mental as well as physical; at least your very best efforts are used to bend their minds and activities in the right direction. Why not make the same effort towards moulding their ideas of the proper way of showing patriotism? While you are protecting your neighbors' children by starting a movement to regulate this unnecessary evil, perhaps you are staying the red death from your very own threshold. Death is the price America is paying for patriotism and the people killed and crippled by thousands every year is the tale of the toll. Can we not so thoroughly believe in the cause of a sane Fourth that we can convince others of the crying need for a cessation of the needless, terrible annual sacrifice of health, happiness, life, limb and broken homes?

THE STORY OF THE CREPE MYRTLE.

The blossom of the old-fashioned crepe myrtle bush is both odd and pretty, with its tiny crumpled petals from which it gets its name, and its queer-shaped buds, tightly encased within their coverings of brown and green. All the "grandmother's gardens" once boasted these quaint little flowers and in those days no yard was complete without their pink freshness as a touch of delicate color to the scene; and thus we associate them with the dainty colonial belles they so much resemble—delicate, fragile and beautiful. We can almost see a moss-grown stone seat in a garden of the "60's" upon which a petite, dainty maiden sits, garbed in frilly laces and with bewitching curls stealing over her white shoulders, while at her feet an ardent lover kneels in the white moonlight, pleading his devotion; while the soft breeze whispers through the crepe myrtle which nods and bends to kiss milady's fragrant hair. Again we can hear the roar of musketry and see the flash of guns as a besieging party advances upon a tall-pillared mansion, treading the vegetation underfoot, and using the larger shrubs and bushes as shields from the deadly shots of the enemy. Perhaps a fair-haired boy from Yankee-land laid beneath a pink blossoming bush and thought of the folks back home, and as his dimming eyes strayed here and there, feebly plucked a spray to hold in his hand as his young soul passed into the Great Beyond. Mayhap old "Unc' Sam" cautiously buried absent massa's silver beneath such a bush when news of the approaching enemy was heard; and carefully covered it over with leaves and sticks to hide the signs of fresh earth. Again, we see little children gathering the pink playthings and laughing in childhood's sheer joy in living as they toss them at each other; and still another and sadder picture forms itself before our eyes—the still form wrapped in the tattered flag for which it gave its life, passing out for the last time between the fluted columns, the blooming myrtles on either side of the steps, and the faithful servants with their bared heads and tearstained faces. Thus our dream-gazing eyes might go on and on from the scenes of love and peace to war, desolation and death, all connected with this little crepe-petaled flower, found in the old-fashioned gardens, a dainty suggestion of both the pain and pleasure of the past.

We would rather have babies that wake up when the morning mists are dissipated by the sunlight, smiling and romping, than be worth all the millions that rich people control. When Iris bends a bow across the skies and the crimson glory of dawn brings forth the inspiration of a new-born day we would rather far have the love of home than all the sordid wealth that commercial success and scheming brings. The News stands first for the sacredness of the home and the happiness and joy of heart that comes therefrom, and next it stands for the progress of Waco, heart center of Texas. While we indulge in our views on politics as the occasion justifies, first the News stands for the Gibraltar of happiness, the real basis of religion, the ideal and the sacred home, sweet home, and preaching this, its founder has enjoyed as much journalistic success as any newspaper publisher in all of this great kingdom of Texas.

The following pithy suggestions concerning smiling and smiles may be of benefit to all of us: "One good hearty laugh is a bombshell exploding in the right place, while spleen and discontent are a gun that kicks over the man who shoots it off."—Talmadge. "The most completely lost of all days is the one in which we have not smiled."—Anonymous. "A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."—Lamb. "Why, then, methinks 'tis time to smile again."—Shakespeare. "Bitter indeed must be the cup that a smile will not sweeten."—Anonymous.

Good form does not necessarily mean formality. The Quakers are perhaps among our most formal people, yet they have no observance of forms as understood by the ritual of churches and lodges.

TRY TO FREEZE OUT BRITISH REALTY MEN

Complications Threatened At National Exchange Association's Convention.

Special to The Morning News.

Louisville, Ky., June 26.—International complications were narrowly averted at the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges, in session here, when a member of the delegation from Winnipeg, Manitoba, noted the absence of British flags among the decorations of the convention hall, and an effort was made to change the name from National to American association.

The Cuban contingent allied themselves with the Canadians and the result was to change the name of the organization to the International Association of Real Estate Boards; but the tone of the debate sounded ominously like a split for a time.

Secretaries of the local boards, exchanging experiences on a steamboat excursion last night, recognized, so they said, a prevailing disposition to make secretaries the "goats" on all occasions, and thereupon they organized the "sublime order of goats."

Thus a new lodge was born. Bruce Douglas of Milwaukee, was elected president; Philip D. Wilson of Los Angeles, secretary, and Stanley L. McMichael of Cleveland, chairman of the committee on ritual.

TEXAS CROPS REPORTED IN EXCELLENT CONDITION

Special to The Morning News.

Washington, June 26.—The crop reporting board of the United States department of agriculture recently issued its report showing the condition of all crops in the United States. Texas makes a fine showing in this respect, the conditions being above the average. The general condition of all crops in the South Central states as follows, on the basis of 100 representing average conditions: Texas, 109; Oklahoma, 109; Tennessee, 98; Arkansas, 92; Missouri, 90, and Louisiana, 88.

NEW JERSEY GOES IN FOR RAISING GAME

Farm of 400 Acres Purchased By State For $10,000—Complete For Work.

Special to The Morning News.

New York, June 26.—The new state game farm of New Jersey, after a careful survey of the entire commonwealth, was located at Forked River, the nerve center of both fishing and shooting of the Middle Atlantic coast. The fish and game commission, under the presidency of Mr. Ernest Napier of East Orange, selected and purchased for $10,000 the 400-acre Holmes farm. The farm was bought six years ago by Mr. Charles A. Smith of New York, from the Holmes heirs for $2500.

During the six-year interval Mr. Smith made vast improvements, such as turning over the soil, fertilizing and replanting it on the latest scientific principles. He rebuilt its various structures and erected new barbed wire fences. In consequence the state got a bargain, which no private individual could have secured, as Mr. Smith, a man of wealth, intended to make this property a show place for his own delectation.

The new game farm is about equally divided in three sections—one of fine soil, one of dense woody highland and swamp and one of salt meadows. The soil lands will be fine for breeding granivorous game birds, with ample retreats in the deep woods. The swamp woods will be ample for breeding deer.

The salt meadows afford just the required areas for breeding wild fowls.

Quail Pens Erected.

Immediately upon taking possession the commission erected a large group of quail pens. A quail pen has a wire gauze front door, or rather, for two-thirds of the front. The dark third allows a hiding place for timid quail when persons approach the pens. In these pens ample quail food is placed. When a consignment of quail is distributed among the pens, captivity is maintained for a few days until the birds get acquainted with the fact that there are food and shelter for them at all times and under all conditions.

The gauze is then opened and the birds allowed to escape. At first the quail make a wild dash for the open and scatter over the meadows and in the woods. Astonishing as it may seem to the laymen, many, or perhaps all of them at times, singly or in numbers, return to the pens for food and shelter. Some of the pens are never closed, so that all returning can find a home at any time of day or night.

The returning quail may be influenced to retain these houses by hawks or other natural influences. They may also be influenced by such quail as are in confinement calling to those outside. Of all American game birds, the quail are the nearest domesticated and have less fear of humans.

The quail used in stocking the state by the fish and game commission are mostly obtained from Oklahoma, where they are trapped. Several thousand have thus been secured from time to time. But few of these are retained at the game farm. The majority are liberated at widely scattered points throughout New Jersey. On one day recently the wardens liberated 800 in the vast scrub oak and pine barrens far inland from Forked River, while many thousand quail have been planted in various parts of the state.

LARGE WATERMELON CROP EXPECTED OVER TEXAS

Special to The Morning News.

Washington, June 26.—The department of agriculture has been investigating crop conditions in Texas and from reports received from that state by the secretary of agriculture, there is going to be a bumper watermelon crop this year. The condition of the crop of that state is reported to be four per cent better than this time last year. Texas is one of the leading watermelon producing states of the union and the Texas product rivals the famous Georgia sweet.

Leaves $1000 Check For $15 Real Money Paper Proves Bogus

Special to The Morning News.

Baltimore, June 26.—Rushing into a crowded car at the Salt Lake station yesterday morning a well-dressed stranger approached F. M. Hesler, an old soldier, found for Morris, Minn., and left a bogus $1000 check in exchange for a loan of $15.

"I need $15 to get a package out of the express office," said the stranger as he rushed up to Hesler. "Hold this check for me and let me have the $15 until I can get this check cashed," he added. Hesler extracted the $15 from his wallet and took the check.

When the train pulled out an examination of the check was made. It was drawn on an El Paso national bank by B. E. Coyle in favor of Sam A. Burton for $1000, and bore the printed stamp, "Certified," in large letters across the face.

Hesler turned the check over to John F. Holland, an engineer who lives at 432 Chicago street, who relayed it to the detective office. Holland claims that the same game has been worked many times in the past month with like success.

WONDERFUL MAP OF LONDON BEING MADE

Will Be 300 Feet Square and Will Show All Buildings in City.

Special to The Morning News.

London, June 26.—If it all goes well and there are no serious delays, three or four years hence the London county council will have completed what it is believed will be the most wonderful map in the whole world. Seventeen years have already been consumed in its preparation and $85,000 has been expended on research and labor connected with it. A further expenditure of about $25,000 is looked forward to with equanimity by the authorities.

The great map will really constitute a Twentieth Century London edition of England's famous Domesday Book. For it will show practically every building in the 116 square miles that go to make up Greater London, setting forth, as far as possible, the more important owners.

It has often been said that London was owned by a few great owners, such as the Duke of Westminster, Lord Howard de Walden, Lord Cadogan, the Duke of Bedford and the Duke of Norfolk. That is, of course, true in a general way, but this map shows that there are no fewer than 24,000 private owners who each possess enough property to make a noticeable showing on its face.

The map will not be issued to the public, but is really being prepared for the use of the county council itself. Although its cost has been enormous, it has already paid for itself by providing immediate data in street widening and improvement cases in which the county council was concerned. It is being drawn to the scale of 5 square feet to the square mile, so that the completed map, which, of course, will be made in sections, will measure 550 feet by 550 feet, or 1-32 of a square mile in area.

The county council has met with considerable opposition from many property owners in collecting data. So suspicious have the latter become of late because of the attitude of the present Liberal government toward land (with which, of course, the London county council has nothing to do) that the owners see in every official inquiry a new attempt of Lloyd-George to still further put the screws on them.

PLENTIFUL PEACH PRODUCTION PROMISED

Special to The Morning News.

Washington, June 26.—Reports received by the secretary of the department of agriculture indicate that Texas will soon harvest one of the largest peach crops in her history. The condition of the peach crop of that state on June 1st was 43 per cent better than the 1911 crop on the same date last year.

NEGRO FAMILY ESCAPES CHLOROFORM ARTIST

When Sam Burke, a negro, and his family returned to their home, 510 South Second street, after an after-supper walk up town last night, they were surprised to find that a mysterious visitor had left destruction in his wake. A strong odor of chloroform came from the house. A messenger was dispatched to the city hall. When Station Officers John Morgan and Joe Carlisle reached the scene of the alleged burglary, they found the excited family holding forth in the front yard. The negroes stated that this makes the fifth visit of the strange visitor.

ALLEGED WIFE-BEATER IS ARRESTED—GIVES BOND

Charged with assault and battery in connection with the alleged mistreatment of his wife, C. B. Maddox, who resides at 1323 Mary street, was yesterday arrested by Station Officers Lee Huff, Alva Tilley and Sam Sheppard and conveyed to the city jail. He was later transferred to the county jail where he made bond a few hours later and was released.

FRESHMAN IS INJURED BY FOLDING MACHINE

George Borrell, one of the News' pressmen, lost a part of his left thumb and suffered the laceration of his first finger Wednesday morning in a folding machine. He was reaching into the folder which was in motion when his foot slipped and his hand came in contact with one of the knives.
